SSR's Houston Office Continues to Grow
MEPT Program hires four new employees

NASHVILLE, TN – October 7, 2013 - Smith Seckman Reid, Inc (SSR), a Nashville based engineering design and facilities consulting firm, has hired L.A. Rangoonwalla, PE, LEED AP, Costas Stergiou, James Taylor, and Matthew Ku, EI, to work in the firm's expanding MEPT program.

Rangoonwalla is a senior mechanical engineer who comes to SSR with 25 years of experience on a wide variety of healthcare, education, commercial, and aviation projects. He received his Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering from the University of Bombay.

Stergiou and Taylor are CADD designers that have experience with multiple software programs including BIM and 3-D drafting techniques.

Ku is due to graduate from the University of Houston with a degree in mechanical engineering technology in December. He is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars.
